

AaroHa Om Certified Coach Program: Information Guide

Become a Certified AaroHa Om Coach

Support India's aging population with compassion, connection, and quiet confidence.

No medical degree required, just the heart to help and the willingness to learn.

Flexible. Meaningful. Human-first work.

Who This Program Is For

You're a perfect fit if you:

- Want to support older adults in your community.
- Have strong communication and listening skills.
- Value emotional intelligence as much as knowledge.
- Are looking for flexible work with meaningful outcomes.
- Believe older adults deserve presence, not just prescriptions.

What You'll Do as a Certified Coach

As an AaroHa Om Certified Coach, you will:

- Conduct in-home or phone-based sessions with clients.
- Teach practical communication and environmental strategies.
- Support emotional confidence, not just hearing levels.
- Work with families to reduce stigma and improve understanding.
- Help people stay connected to themselves and their communities.

What You'll Learn

Your training equips you with:

- Basics of hearing loss & aging psychology
- Culturally sensitive coaching techniques
- Family and caregiver engagement skills
- Hearing coaching techniques
- Roleplay-based conversational coaching
- When & how to refer to medical professionals

Delivery:

- Bilingual modules (English + regional language)
- Self-paced learning + Live practice labs
- Weekly group sessions and feedback reviews
- Complete certification in 3–4 weeks

Earning Potential & Growth

Unlimited earning potential – your income grows with the number of clients you serve.

Career Progression:

- Hearing Coach → Zone Lead → Zone Head → Partner
- Zones divided by location (e.g., Pune zones), giving you opportunities for leadership based on your area.
- At each stage, grow your impact, expand your responsibilities, and mentor new coaches.

Revenue Model:

- Company-Generated Clients: 40% revenue share per session
- Your Leads: 60% revenue share per session
- Shared Leads: 20% (referrer) + 40% (serving coach) + 40% (company)

Work Style:

- Part-time or project-based
- Flexible locations (in-home, hybrid, remote calls)
- Therapist dashboard to manage appointments, reminders, and training refreshers
